

HAMBURG

Rally Under Auspices of Yale Council of Defense-Y. M. C. A. Subscriptions Over $800.

A number from this place attended the Junior prom at Deep River last Miss May Harding was a Norwich visitor Saturday There will be a rally at the Congregational church Tuesday evening, Nov

27th, under the auspices of the State Mrs. Lyman Harding has returned from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Clark, who woved to East

Harry Clark, who woved to East Hartford recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Pavis of Say-brook were visitors on Bill Hill last Halock Martin is laying hard wood loors in James Bennett's cotage in floors in James Bennett's cotage in Sterling City.

Mrs. C. W. Pratt of Hartford and Miss Belle Pratt of Saybrook spent last week with their sister, Mrs. Mary Bill.

Mrs. James Lord was a Hartford

Mrs. James Lord was a Hartford visitor Monday. The L. B. S. met last week Wednes-day with Mrs. Olson and daughter, Violet and Esthee, served dinner at 1

p. m. Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Beebe and Mr. Clarence Daniels and family of Deep River were calling on relatives Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Helen Gage returned last Friday from a visit to Worcester.

Albert Bushnell and family of Centerbrook, were guests at L. D. Harding's Sunday. Over $800 Subscribed.

Community Supper and Entertainment ber-Woodmen Name Dance Com-

The community supper and entertainment given by the Ladies' Aid society in the Union Baptist church on Friday evening proved a great success and a large sum was realized.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Chapman, Mrs. Thomas Watt and William Watt, motored to New Haven and Hartford on Sunday.

Supprise Party.

Dance Committee.

Cochegan camp, No. 9366, Modern Woodmen of America, voted to hold a social and dance on Thanksgiving eve The following committee is in charge: Dudley Neff, chairman, Joseph Marcoux, Eugene Green, John Mahoney, Elmer Garret and Joseph L. Wood: passed, Law—James Talcott vs. Bradford A. Clark. (Set down for hearing in West-

STERLING

Miss Mary Douglass entertained riends from Providence over the week

Elmer Babcock is much improved in health.

Ivoryton-The guinea pig industry has started in this end of the town.

PYRALIN IVORY FOR THE TOILET TABLE

Clean, attractive, durable-WILL NOT TARNISH. Select a piece today while our stock is large. We will mark it free if you purchase it here before December 1st.

THE LEE & OSGOOD CO., Norwich, Ct. Page & Shaw and Park & Tilford Candy

WESTERLY AND VICINITY

Jury Selected for Sargent Automobile Fatality Trial Views Location of Accident-Henry Martell Released Under $500 Bonds-Contributions to Y. M. C. A. War Fund $15,750. or $1,440 Over Allotment-Hebrew Young Men Organize-R. I. Hotel Liquor License Given Up.

of Louis Dotolo, withdrew the dis-allowance of the claim of the Texas Oil company against the estate.

the business session there was a dance, the music being furnished by the Y. M. W. H. A. orchestra, composed of Solo-mon Etelman, violin; Miss Hilda Etelman. piano, and Morris Streltzer,

Grand deputy and grand conductor,
Mrs. McNaughton and Mrs. Black, of Strathconia lodge, of Groton, installed
these officers of Lady Leslie lodge,
Daughters of Scotia, of Westerly:
Mary Love, chief daughter; Elizabeth
Bonnar, past chief daughter; May
Phillips, sub-chief daughter; Jessie
Peabody, chaplain: Mary Irvine, recording secretary; Jessie Hoadley, financial secretary; Bessie M. Reardon, treasurer; Margaret Marr, conductor; Margaret Stewart, inside The town of Lyme's subscription to the Y. M. C. A. fund was over eight hundred dollars, five hundred being the allotment.

ductor: Margaret Stewart. inside guard: Elizabeth Finlay. outside guard: Jennie Adams, piapist; Isabella Sawyers, trustee.

MONTVILLE

The schedule of the traveling naval recruiting mission has been changed and in consequence there was no recruiting in Westerly Tuesday, although one young man from Lower Pawcatuck was ready to place his John Hancock was ready to place his John Hancock to enlistment papers. The advance men. J. McElroy and F. R. Gilson, chief yeomen, were here to arrange for the coming of the recruiting staff.

Sunday.

Surprise Party.

Miss Celia Wilber was pleasantly surprised at her home in Palmertown Saturday evening. The evening was spent in playing games and music, after which a collation was served. Friends from Greeneville and Norwich were present.

Miss Grace Hooper has returned to her home after spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Filer, of Danielson.

with her sister, Mrs. Filer, of Danielson.

Edward Dart is confined to his home by a a nervous breakdown.

Illustrated Lecture.

Mr. Raymond, secretary of the Connected Bible society gave an illustrated lecture on How We Got Our Bible at the Union Baptist church Sunday evening.

Lewis Peters of New Haven is visiting friends in fown.

The November term of the superior court for Washington county. Judge Doran presiding, convened at Kingston Tuesday. The motion calendar was called and disposition made as follows. Divorce—Josephine L. P. Wilmerding vs. Mortimer Wilmerding: passed.

Law—Rita F. Labey vs. Taibot Hann; passed.

Law—David Syme vs. Archibald McNell: case assigned to Westerly.

iting friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs Charles Noble of New J. Donnelly, alias et al.; passed.

London called on friends in town on Law—Alice A. Cornish vs. Luella V. Matteson; passed, Equity—Charles J. Davol vs. War-wick Thompson Eldredge, Jr.; passed

Clark. (Set down for hearing in West-erly. Application for citation in sup-plementary proceedings.) Equity—Washington Trust Co., ex-ecutor, vs. Mary M. H. Thomas et al.;

cond.

Miss Mabel Moore spent the week end at her home here.

Mrs. Walter J. Lobdell of New Britain has been visiting Mr, and Mrs. I. F. Anderson.

Mrs. John Knox was a Providence visitor Saturday.

Mrs. I. F. Anderson and Mrs. W. J. Lobdell have been visiting relatives in South Attleboro. Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson are ill with grip.

Westerly.

In the divorce action of Delia Agnes Bennett vs. Chester W. Bennett, on motion for allowance pending a hearing, the petitioner asked for $6 a week.
$10 for witness fees and a reasonable counsel fee. After hearing the witnesses, Judge Doran allowed $3 a week to the petitioner, $8 for the witness fee and $15 for counsel fee.

Two divorce cases were heard Amy

Two divorce cases were heard. Amy R. Lattin vs. William H. Lattin. Grant-R. Lattin vs. William H. Lattin. Granted on ground of neglect to provide. Petitioner was given custody of two minor children.

Mabel E. Nichols vs. Elmer B. Nichols. Granted on ground of neglect to provide. Petitioner was given the custody of two minor children.

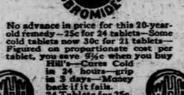

When court came in Wednesday morning the jury was selected for the trial of the manslaughter charge against Miss Alice Sargent. The jury is composed as follows:

Westerly—William C. Steadman, Walter Rosers and John Girven.

North Kingston—John E. Wilcox, Daniel C. Pierce and Arthur E. Osborne.

Hopkinton-Joseph E. Ennis Henry C. Clark.

When reports were received at head-quarters in Providence Monday night it was revealed that the sum of $461. 646.04 had been contributed throughout Rhode Island to the Red Triangle fund of the Y. M. C. A., or $38,953.96 short of the amount allotted to the state. Special effort is being raised to bring the figures up to the $500,000 standard. Westerly's allotment was $14,310 and $15,750 was raised, an excess of $1,440.

At the session of the Westerly probate court Tuesday, Judge Edward M. Burke presiding, the inventory of the estate of Esther H. Evans, showing valuation of $2,572.28, and the inventory of the estate of Ann M. Maxson, valuation of $15,906.39, were received and ordered recorded. Attorneys Dunn and Davis, administrators of the estate of Louis Dotolo, withdrew the disallowance of the claim of the Texas of Louis Dotolo, withdrew the disallowance of the claim of the Texas Cil company against the estate.

Young women and men resident in Westerly, Stonington and Mystic met in Hibernian hall Sunday evening and organized the Young Men's and Women's Hebrew association. The officers elected are Dave Novogrod, president: Morris Gilbert, vice president; Morris Streltser, financial secretary; Ming Gertrude Lobovitz, treasurer. After the business session there was a dance, passed the trolley car. It is farther passed the trolley car. It is farther alleged that Miss Sargent was operating her racing car at a high rate of speed and that her recklessness caused the death. The jurors were ordered to report in the court room at Kingston this (Thursday) morning, when the trial will be commenced.

> Henry Martell, who has just com-pleted a sentence in the Providence county jail, for breaking and entering a store in Westerly, was brought into court to answer to second indictment Sentence was deferred on the second indictment by Judge Doran, and he was released on his personal recognizance in a bond of $500.

Rhode Island people are asked to invest in war savings stamps to the amount of $12,600,000, according to announcement made by Theodore announcement made by Theodore Francis Green, war savings director for the state, to assist in financing the war and the promotion of thrift. The amount expected to be raised in the country is $2,000,000,000, and the stamps will be on sale December 2, in post offices, banks and other places showing.

Dr. John W. Keefe. of Providence, major in the medical reserve corps, has been appointed as medical aide to assist in Rhode Island in organiz-ing the state medical advisory boards, ing the state medical advisory The honor roll for the Rhode Island State college at Kingston contains the names of 118 men now in the fighting force of the nation. Commissioned cugh physical examination in cases tions for the purpose of extending to the registrants opportunity for thor-cugh physical examination in cases where decision of selection boards on physical fitness are questioned. Phy-sicians from all sections of the state will be members of the advisory > Local Laconics. Frederick A. Stillman has gone to Daytona, Florida, for the winter. Up to date no remonstrance been filed against any applicant for li-

There is still a very near sugar famine in Westerly and bakers' cake s now a rea! luxury. The Westerly town council will consider the granting of liquor licenses at a meeting Wednesday next.

Major Ian Hay Belth told the story of the war to a satisfied audience in Revs. John J. Fitzgerald and Walter Lyddy, of St. Michael's parish, Pawcatuck, were at Camp Devens on Miss Agnes F. Brodie is substitut-ing for Miss Marie Zangrandi for a few days in the circulation department of the Westerly Public Library.

A powerful search light illuminates the Campbell big grain elevator, now nearing completion, to replace the plant destroyed by fire last winter. Miss Ada Harding of Rhode Island State college, gave a potato demon-stration in the domestic science rooms of the Elm street school Tuesday af-

The liquor license for the Rhode Island hotel expires with November and will not be renewed. George Montalto will also retire from the saloon bus-iness at the expiration of his license

At the Willow Point masquerade, the first prize, a $5 gold piece, offered for the most attractive character costume, was awarded to Miss Kathleen Crockett, of Westerly. She represent-ed an old-time princess in court cos-

Miss Elizabeth Champlain, age 99, made the cake for Mrs. John L. Loveland's 87th birthday. Both women have been friends for many years, the latter being somewhat of a benefactor for "Aunt Betsey," the aged colored women. ored woman.

The railroad bridge over the Pawcatuck river, just west of the station in Westerly, and which connects the two states, is now closely guarded by plain clothes men. No person is allowed to cross the bridge at night afnot, who cannot produce a railroad

The new roadbed being constructed in Broad street will not receive the top dressing and completion until carly spring. The highway will be open to traffic all winter, however, and in its present condition is in a greatly improved condition over the old roadbed.

Rev. F. Stewart Kinley conducted the funeral service of Margaret S. Larkham, formerly of Jewett City, at the home of Mrs. Ella Chapman, on Tuesday noon. Burial was at River Bend. The bearers were Eugene B. Pendleton, John W. Berry, William Eaton and George B. Taylor.

Eaton and George B. Taylor.

"The Missing Will" is being sought by heirs of an estate pending in the Westerly probate court. A will has been found, but it is known that a later will was executed. The first will was found carefully preserved among the effects of the deceased, and if the later will is not found, the will in the possession of the court, filed for probate, will stand.

Bay Fether Brune was celebrant of

Rev. Father Bruno was celebrant of Rev. Father Bruno was celebrant of the mass of requiem in the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Wednes-day, at the funeral of Mrs. Rosanio Dlangi, who died Sunday in Law-rence hospital, New London. She was born in Italy twenty-two years ago and resided in Westerly eight years. She is survived by her husband, three sisters, and a son, three years old. At the request of the Westerly Ministers' association, the Westerly Laymen's League will be in charge of the mass meeting to be held December 3, in the interest of the passage of the bill for national prohibition. The time divided thirty days for in-

Notice to Sick Women The Experience of These Women Prove That There is a Remedy for Your Illness.

Aberdeen, Idaho.—"Last year I suffered from a weakness with pains in my side and back. A friend asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I did so. After taking one bottle I felt very much better. I have now taken three bottles and feel like a different wom in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best medicine I have ever taken and I can recommend it to all suffering women."—Mrs. Percy Prestings, Aberdeen, Idaho.

Kingfisher, Okla.—"For two years I suffered with a severe female trouble, was nervous, and had backache and a pain in my side most of the time. I had dizzy spells and was often so faint I could not walk across the floor. The doctor said I would have to have an operation. A friend asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking ten bottles I am now well and strong, have no pain, backache or dizzy spells. Every one tells me how well I look and I tell them Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did it."—Miss Nina Southwick, R. F. D. No. 4, Box 33, Kingfisher, Okla.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM VEGETABLE COMPOUND

has restored more sick women to health than any other remedy.

At Your Druggist's LYDIA E.PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. LYNN, MASS.

The league appointed as the commit-tee of arrangements Dr. Edwin Whit-ford, John H. Austin, James E. Ken-George A. Champlin and Lewis

MYSTIC

Leslie Cook Wins Letter in Athletics at Colby College-Death of Mrs. Mary E. Fountaine.

Leslie Cook, who was graduated from Stonington High school last Jummer and is now a student at Colby college, Waterville, Me. has won his letter in athletics by his work on the gridiron this fall. He was on the football squad for the recent game against Brown university and for a freshman has been making a good showing. He is specializing in chemistry at the college. istry at the college.

OBITUARY.

Miss Mary E. Fountaine. Mrs. Mary E. Fountaine died at her home at 55 Pearl street Tuesday, af-ter a long illness. She was born on Jan. 15, 1840, in Wolverhampton, Engand, and has been a resident of this place but a few years. Gossip and Chat.

John Crandall is spending a few ays in Springfield and Worcester. Charles Reynolds of New York has been spending several days at his frome in West Mystic. Rev. Herbert Gesner of Easton, Pa., s the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter T.

Carl Willis has left for a visit in Columbus, Ohio.
Mrs. Irwin Haley has closed her ummer home and has zone to Brook-yn, N. Y., for the winter. Louie E. White spent Wednesday Boston. Miss Agnes Gallup of New York is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. George Scott.

Critically III. Kenneth Newbury, youngest son of Elmer Newbury, is critically ill of carlet fever and diphtheria, at the come of his grandparents, Mr. and Mary's church was sung by Rev. J. E. George Coulter and daughter of Waterbury, are guests of Mrs. C. J. Luce and other of Bandell Browne.

A large number of triends attended the funeral of James A. Birchall on Mrs. George Coulter and daughter of Waterbury, are guests of Mrs. C. J. Luce and other of Bandell Browne.

Trapping Profitable. scarlet fever and diphtheria, at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Randall Browne.
William Palmer has returned to Boston after a visit with his parents,

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen B. Palmer. Sewed for Red Cross. The Ladies' Aid society of the Con-gregational church met in the parish house Wednesday afternoon and after a short business session did sewing for the Red Cross.

STONINGTON

Patriotic Celebration Planned For November 26th-Free Library Has Busy Quarter-Death of Alfred J. Bloor, Noted Architect.

Plans are in the works for a big pa Plans are in the works for a nig patriotic demonstration in Stonington borough, Monday evening, November 26th, under the direction of the Connecticut State Council of Defense, which will furnish the speaker. Borough hall has been engaged for the event. The Imperial band will furnish nish music and B company, Connecti-cut Home Guard, and the Boy Scouts will take part in the manifestation of patriotism. A Liberty chorus is being formed to sing at this demonstration and others that are to follow.

Library Meeting.

Henry Robinson Palmer, president, presided at the quarterly meeting of the Stonington Free Library associareports showed the institution and the work to be of a most satisfactory nature. During the quarter 2,170 books of fiction and 20 of non-fiction were circulated, a total of 3,371 books. In the same perior 108 books were added to the library, 76 non-fiction and 22 fiction. The receipts for the quarter were $455.35 and expenses, $254,38, with a balance of $200.97.

Death of Noted Architect. Alfred Janson Bloor, who died Monday at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Darrow, Cove Lawn, Stonington, was buried in Greenwood cemetery, New York, Wednesday, He suffered a paralytic stroke a week previous and falled to recover. Mr. Bloor had been a resident of the borough for many years. He was born in Scotland in 1829 He was a born in Scotland in 1829 He was born in Scotland in 1829 He was a fellow of the American Institute of Architecture and trustee, secretary and advertiser of the publications ten years. He was a founder and life member of the Metropolitan Museum of Art and a member of American Numismatic society. He was identified with the Portuguese Architects and Archaeologists, the American Federation of Arts, the American Science, and Historical Preservation society Royal Society of Arts, England, and Circle of Friends of the Medallion. In the Civil war he was ussistant secretary of the United States Sanitary commission.

John Harrington, released from the New London jail Tuesday, was be-fore the Stonington town court, Wed-nesday, charged with intoxication and wife beating. He was adjudged guil-ty by Judge Frank H. Hinckley and

OPEN Saturday Evenings from 6.30 to 8

2000年1月1日 · 1000年1日 · 1000日 ·

for Deposits THE CHELSEA SAVINGS BANK

FRANKLIN SQUARE

toxication and 90 days for more serious

Building Company Elects. At the annual meeting of the Ston cers were elected: Elias B. Hinckley. bresident; George H. Robinson, secre-tary and treasurer; Henry A. Pendicton, secretary and treasurer; Elias B. Hinckley, John Killars, James H. Stiv-ers, Everett N. Pendleton, George H. Robinson, directors.

Stonington Pointers. commissioned major at Flattsburg. He week, attending the 50th anniversary is well known in the borough and is of the marriage of her sister and the son of George A. Adee, of West-chester. N. Y., and nephew of Miss Grace N. Stanton, of Stonington.

Frank L. Garity, of Waterbury, is at the home of his parents. Mr. and, Mrs. E. J. Garity, in the borough.

A leave number of friends attended

Rt. Rev. E. C. Atcheson, suffragan bishop of Connecticut will preach in Calvary Episcopal church Sunday.

Mrs. Joseph H. Hammond is to conduct the Liberty chorus at the patriotic demonstration November 26th.
Company B. Connecticut Home
Guards crilled Wednesday evening.
Joseph, Sylvia and Manuel Bent have joined the Fort Wright band.

Latest War Books Added to the Otis Library.

An interesting account of the inside working of the German spy system both in Europe and this continent is told in "My Adventures as a Secret Agent" by Captain Horst von der Goltz, who was in a British prison as a British suspect until sent to this country to give evidence in cases re-sulting in the deportation of Captains von Peppen and Boy-Ed. The book has been aded to the Otis Library shelves.

The New South Wales government for Uncle Sam since the organization proposes to settle 5,000 Australian and of the provisional recruiting April 12, 1,000 British soldiers on the land.

NIANTIC

Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Warner Going to Florida-Profitable Season for Trap-

Mrs. George K. Crandall and Miss Ethel Griffin of Best View. Waterford, and Miss Mollie Guest of New London motored here last week, calling on friends and relatives.

George Townsend Adee, has been was in Williamantic the first of the commissioned major at Flattsburg. He week, attending the 50th anniversary

Mrs. George Coulter and daughter.

A number of the village boys are en-gaged in the trapping business, which seems to net good returns. Highest prices are paid for hides of different mimals at present.

Miss Catherine Gorton, who is attending school in Massachusetts, is home for a few days with her mother, Mrs. Oren B. Gorton, of the Flanders Phil Sheridan and family are mov ing from the M. R. Davis place in Lin-coln street to a tenement in Patta-gansett avenue.

Mrs. Medcalf's granddaughter is vis-Mrs. Medcall's granddaughter is visiting in New London.
Mrs. Ellen V. Weir and Mrs. Matthews were Niantic visitors Monday.
Mrs. Gillette of Springfield, Mass., has been at her bungalow in Wells street for a few days.

Hartford—Captain John Warren Weissheimer of the Forty-sixth Uni-ted States Infantry, a former resident of this city, has enlisted 4,751 recruits

GOOD-BYE BACKACHE, KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES

203 MAIN ST.

For centurie all over the world GOLD MEDAL Haarlem O'! has afforded relief in thousands upon thousands or have difficulty when urinating, Go to sase of lame back, lumbago, sciatica, rheumatism galistones, gravel and all other affections of the kidneys, liver, stomach, bladder and allied organs if acts quickly. It does the work. It cleanses your kidneys and purifies the blood. It makes a new man, a new woman of you. It frequently wards off attacks of the dread and fatal diseases of the kidneys. It often completely cures the distressing diseases of the bladder and kidneys and throw off the inflammation which is the cause of the organs of the bod, allied with the bladder and kidneys, Bloody or cloudy urine, sediment or "brick-dust" indicate an unhealthy condition.

Don't You Want Good Teeth?

Does the dread of the dental chair cause you to neglect need have no fears. By our method you can have your crowned or extracted ABSOLUTELY WITHOUT PAIN. CONSIDER THESE OTHER FEATURES STRICTLY SANITARY OFFICE STERILIZED INSTRUMENTS

CLEAN LINEN ASEPTIC DRINKING CUPS LOWEST PRICES CONSISTENT WITH BEST WORK

If these appeal to you, call for examination, and estimate. He charge for consultation. DR. F. C. JACKSON DENTISTS

NORWICH, CONN.

Telephone